

JANET ELIZABETH JURADO

j.e.jurado2002@gmail.com

262-564-9517

UW-Parkside Newswriting Internship (February 2025-May 2025)

Internship Supervisor: Adrienne Viramontes

DETAILS

- Regularly engaged in writing stories through news article formats, both as practice and eventually for the University of Wisconsin-Parkside website
- Interviewed and talked with multiple artists and performers for assigned stories
- Occasionally visited events such as theatre rehearsals and classes to take photography
- Frequently engaged in necessary research in order to gather information on story topics
- Met once a week with supervisor to discuss progress and areas for improvement, story ideas, the inverted pyramid writing style, and overall to maintain regular communication
- Collaborated with other students in the internship to co-write stories that were more information-dense and that consisted of interviewing multiple people
- Took part in multiple independent study sessions to learn about the inverted pyramid writing style more in depth, as well as other tips and tricks for newswriting
- Frequently edited and revised self-written news stories before being submitted
- Peer reviewed and provided feedback to other intern's article drafts and work

EDUCATION

BA in Communication, BA in Theatre Arts (Acting Concentration), Minor in Digital Media Production, University of Wisconsin-Parkside (Expected Graduation May 2025)

*Related Courses Taken: Digital Storytelling, Digital Photography, Public Relations Concepts and Practices, Digital and Social Media, Podcasting, Writing for Business and Industry

SKILLS

- | | |
|---|---|
| ● Interviewing | ● Photography and videography |
| ● Writing (business and industry, inverted pyramid) | ● Interpersonal communication, collaboration, conflict resolution |
| ● Research | ● Microsoft and Google workspaces |
| ● Graphic design | ● Editing (photo, video, writing) |
| ● Adobe programs | ● Customer service (6+ years) |

REFERENCES

Dr. Adrienne Viramontes

University of Wisconsin-Parkside

Communication Professor and Department Chair

viramont@uwp.edu